

October 2022. A month's activities for Royston & District Motor Cycle Club.

Sunday 2nd.

John Gordon was invited by Martin from Bikestop to lead the October ride out. 26 riders plus pillion passengers set off from the Stevenge shop in 3 groups for an hours ride through Hertfordshire villages from William, Ashwell, Baldock and back to Bikestop.

Tuesday 4th

Tea and cake at Lawrence Wiles then off to King Langley for lunch at The Kitchen.

Wednesday 5th

Club night at Eternit

Sunday 9th

Griff leads Paul Collins, Micheal Bulley and new comer Richard Cassidy to the Super Sausage.

Tuesday 11th

14 members made their way behind Keith Barrel to Oundle via Olivier's in Kimpton. John Gordon is holidaying in Columbia for the next 3 Tuesday. Keith had phoned ahead to Dexters Café who had outside tables all set out for our lads. I am not going to mention the waitresses but you need to look closely at the photo.

Sunday 16th

Ken Desborough accompanied by Dave Browning & Steve Conningsby makes his twice yearly visit to the Stafford Motor Cycle Jumble.

Much to Dan Shaw's annoyance our trio witnessed 3 NR750

Tuesday 18th

Steve Wilson leads the 10 man team to The Pedlars at Swaffham. An eventful day with Jim Greig unable to restart his BMW, not you will note his KTM, in Kneesworth. But late starter Mick Gilhooley made the numbers up to the 10 when Mick joined the group whilst they enjoyed a break at Walkers, Barton Mills. Pedlars proprietor Al was outside to welcome and point out parking areas.

Tuesday 25th

Greg Vaughan led 9 riders to the Oyster Bar on Mersea Island via coffee at Finchingfield. Except that upon arrival at the causeway leading to Mersea our team found the causeway under a foot of water. Not to be thwarted Greg contacted the nearby Glasshouse to arranged refreshments for those under his care.

Sunday 30th

Nick Thompson made his way to the Motorcycle Museum at the NEC.

Matt Brett and son Max went to a Run what you Bung at Santa Pod. How did he fare over the timed quarter of a mile?

Well, what more could you want from a club?
